The Smiddy Clinic

WISE, VA LOCATION

Supporters of The Health Wagon may wish to have an opportunity to make a memorial gift or a gift to honor an individual by naming a part of The Smiddy Clinic building in Wise, Virginia. The Board of Trustees has established a naming opportunities program to guide and assist donors who wish to make such gifts.

Donations made to honor or memorialize an individual will be placed in a quasi-endowment fund for the purpose of providing an on-going resource to maintain and enhance the building over its lifetime.

AVAILABLE OPPORTUNITIES

The Board of Trustees of The Health Wagon has established a Naming Opportunities program to guide donors who may wish to honor or memorialize a relative or friend by making a gift to support the endowment of the Health Wagon building located in Wise, Virginia. The building opened in January 2012 and provides health care services for and is the administrative home of the clinic's various operations.

Contributions to this special program will be placed in a quasi-endowment to be an ongoing resource for operation and maintenance of the building. Donations will be recognized by a permanent plaque located next to the entrance to the designated area. Please refer to the schematic drawing above of the building and the various naming opportunities.
